There are very few things that need watching as closely as a Ring reversment. mous swindling of the City and County of New York. We say "enormous swindling," and the public of this city will agree that the phrase is entirely just when they consider the nature of the transactions, and that the alleged fraudulent bills foot an aggregate value of $8. transactions, and that the alleged fraudu-lent bills foot an aggregate value of $9,-534,110 for "furniture," "carpets," "cabi-net work," "repairs," "plastering," etc., to the "new public buildings," and the-ar-movies and drill-rooms of that City, in parts of the years 1808-100-70. As wonch-ers for the accuracy of its figures, the Times has published extensive transcripts, which is alleges, have been faithfulls ing so closely as a Ring government. Eternal vigilance is the price of low taxes and progressive city. Daily Evening News, Fall Rives, Mass.

The revelations of the New York Times which it alleges have been faithfully copied from the books of Comptroller Connolly. To give some ides of the details of most pungent attention throughout the Republic. If what is said is true, the question at once arises whether there is any such thing as safety under, our form of government for the people, from being plundered by the very rulers they select to manage their municipal concerns.

The warfare waged by the New York Times against the Tammany Ring has attracted great attention throughout the country. The expose of the corruption at City Hall has created a profound sensation, and the result will ultimately be to destroy the political power of Tammany. From every quarter the Times receives the warmest thanks for its bold and decisive course. It is certainly entitled to the greating of "plastering in the armories," there was paid to one Andrew J. Garvey the nice little sum of $197,330; for "plumbing in little sum of $197,330; for "plumbing in the armories," there was paid to J. H. Keyser $142,339; for "chairs in the armories," there was paid to J. H. Ingersoll $170,729; and for "carpentering in the armories," there was paid to J. S. Miller $434,004. This is quite a sung "patronags" to those meritorious trades. But the thoughtful reader will, of course, wonder what in the world ten armories and drill. t is certainly entitled to the gratitude of svory honest citizen of New York.

what in the world ten armories and drill rooms can want with $170,729 worth of chairs! He may well wonder at such be wildering supplies for sitting purposes in drill rooms, as he also may be estonished at the energy of the drille, which require in nine months $434,000 to pay for "repairs" to the wood work of ten rooms; $197,000 for "repairs" to the plastering and $142,329 for repairs to the water and gas pipes. But these emotions of surprise or astonishment do not seem to have been excited in the minds of the officials who audited these bills and signed the warrants for their payment, or if they were they certainly did not prevent the palpably awindling claims from being paid.

At no time in the history of Titusville could nvestments in real estate be made with such an absolute certainty of safety, and of sure profit, as at present. Every one is aware that our business depends upon the product of oil, and, to a great extent, on the proximity of the wells to our city. THIS MUST BE READ. The present development, just outside of the city, surprises the oldest inhabitant. Of the durability of the wells in the Church Run district, all operators have but one opinion. The street improvements about to be inaugurated, together with the water works, make thus not only a desirable place for residence, but establishes Titusville fixedly, as second to no city in America for the business man. Too much cannot be said in praise of Titusville. It is emphatically the headquarters of live business men.

Business Change-New York Meat Market. The City Auditorship.

In pursuance of the opinion rendered by Judge Lowrie, in response to a letter from Mr Cadwallader, President of the Council, that body have called a special election of the saudidates will be closely canvassed by the people. It is not the province of a newspaper to nominate candidates for official positions. Such a proceeding is arbitrary and unheard of, and to do so is for the newspaper management to arrogate to itself a superior degree of wisdom, and to usurp a prerogative which belongs to the lectors themselves. The office should seek the man, not the man the office, and stall public opinion by imposing a candidate upon the public who is not known to have first elicited a fair popular expression with regard to his fitness or his claims in omparison with other candidates.

week. Baron was absent several days, working upon his farm, near McGestown and Thorn returned, as it is supposed by pre-arrangement with Mrs. Baron, and they decamped together, taking the even ing train for Corry at the Tryonville station. Mrs. Baron took her youngest child, a babe, but left three other little ones at home. Beron has obtained a warrant for the arrest of the fugitives, and if they are recaptured and brought back, it seems probable that Thorn will be roughly nandled. There is a deep-seated feeling of indignation against him in the neighborhood, and threats of lynching are freely circulated. Mr. Baron, against whom he outrage was perpetrated, is an honest, hard-working German, who can not speak English intelligibly, but has accumulated considerable means by his unceasing industry.
